

New 988 National Crisis Lifeline.

Expanded network of centers to help people in emotional distress or experiencing a mental health crisis.

If you or someone you know is experiencing a mental health, suicide-related or substance-use crisis, call or text 988 to reach the national Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. You can also chat 988lifeline.org for support.

Moving to an easy-to-remember, 3-digit dialing code will provide greater access to life-saving services. By dialing 988, you can now be connected to free, confidential mental health crisis resources. The number 988 operates out of the existing National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, which has been strengthened and expanded around the country with more than 200 local, independent, state-funded crisis centers. Dialing 988 serves as a universal entry point so that no matter where you live in the United States, you can reach a trained crisis counselor who can help.
